BOULDER NEXT ON UTAH'S LIST

Varsity Line Needs Strengthening Before Meeting This Team.

LACK FOOTBALL MATERIAL

NEW MEN SHOULD BE FOUND TO FILL SOME OF THE HOLES.

Utah's great football victory Saturday has given local football fans something to talk about for the next week. It has also plainly shown that with the addition of a couple of new men Maddock will be able to compete with Boulder two weeks from last Saturday and stand a fair chance of another victory. Boulder is considered the greatest football team that has ever been brought together in Colorado, either this or any other year. To defeat them the 'varsity will have to be stronger than it was Saturday, and this is what is bothering Coach Maddock.

"Joe" has been seriously crippled all fall by the lack of material from which to build a team. His line is not nearly so defeat them the 'varsity will have to be stronger than it was Saturday, and this is what is bothering Coach Maddock.

"Joe" has been seriously crippled all fall by the lack of material from which to build a team. His line is not nearly so strong as the back field, and has been promised that several likely candidates would be furnished him to work on, but as yet none have appeared. Instead of the promised support, there have been influences apparently at work to prevent good men from becoming available.

Maddock Needs Support.

It does not seem right to expec at does not seem right to expect a coach to go skirmishing around the country to induce husky youngsters to come to school to strengthen the team. This is done in every college in the country and will have to be done in Utah if this state ever takes a front rank in football circles in the United States. At the present time, with Maddock as coach. Utah has just such an opportunity ahead of them, and if he is given half the support he is entitled to this end can be accomplished.

One has but to look what was done for Campbell at Logan. He was given as fine a bunch of promising football material as one can find in any college in the country. Suppose for an instant Maddock was transferred to the Agricultural college. It would simply mean that so long as he remained there Logan would have the greatest football team in the west, and the university would probably never again be able to gain the supremacy in the sport it has held every year but one since the game became popular in this city.

every one connected with athletics at the university would get out and work for the team's interest there is little doubt it will win.

The Denver football boys remained over in Salt Lake yesterday and left for home last evening. With the exception of Manley, who limped slightly, all felt fine and the whole team was in good spirits. They spent the day looking around the city, and before leaving expressed a hope that they would be given a chance to try it out with Utah again next year.

Officials All Right.

Owing to the kick registered against the officials in Saturday's game by the Denver team, some of those who were not present might get the impression the visitors were given the worst of it. This is not true. Their work was exceptionally fine. There was no more occasion for complaint than there has been at many of the baseball games played at Walker's field when a howl was set up against the umpire because Salt Lake lost. In both instances it was a clear case of the better

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 22.—Marvin Hart, the world's champion heavyweight pugilist, wearing a smile and a few cold weather garments, journeyed into the city today. To a local sporting man, after paying his respects to Fitzsimmons, he said:

lished in Paris Reporting Some paying his respects to Fitzsimmons, after paying his respects to Fitzsimmons, and the might before the Reno fight I was in a room in a hotel with Jeffries, Root and Lou Houseman, Root's manager Jeffries said. 'Hart, I believe you and Root are the two best men in this country, I wanted to turn my title over to have brother, Jack Jeffries, but I do not believe he can defsnd it. I may not give it to either of you boys, I'll sec.'

"Houseman then said that I must fight Root under break-clean rules. I agreed to the fight, break clean, knowing I could beat Root. Later I became suspicious, because Jeffries said: 'If either of you hit in a clinch, I'll disqualify you.'

"In the seventh round of my fight with Root, just as the gong sounded and as I turned to go to my corner, Root hit mon the ear, sending me to my knees. I have the picture of the round to prove my statement. Jeffries said he did not see Root commit the foul.

"As certain as I live, the plan was to trim me at, Reno, to give the championship to Root, and then let Jeffries and Root fight.

"I am ready to fight Jeffries, and I mean it." "I am ready to fight Jeffries, and I mean it."

SALT LAKE "SOCKERS" DEFEAT PARK CITY

In a fast, snappy game of association football the Salt Lakers defeated the Park City team by three goals to one. The features of the game were the fine combination of the Salt Lake forwards and the wonderful saving of the Park goal keeper. The former repeatedly crossed the ball in front of goal and sent in good shots, but the latter was generally where he was wanted

National league was received by Harry Newmeyer of this city about a week ago, and is still in his hands. The Pittsburgers would like to have Newmeyer pitch for them next year, and the latter is willing to do so. Only the question of prober compensation prevents an agreement being made at once. Newmeyer has placed a price on his services that is about 500 greater than the offer made by the club. The chasm is not an impassable one, making the probabilities great than the Denver man will be in the contest for the National league championship next year. Newmeyer has been pitching ball about Denver for several years, having served one engagement with the Colorado Springs team in the Western league. One year he was in the Utah league, puching fine ball and leading that teague in batting. Last summer he played with the team at Hot Springs. S. D. He is now working in one of the large wholesale grocery houses of this city. His left arm, which is the on ewith which he pitches, is being kept in shape by handling boxes. Newmeyer is a great admirer of the game of ping pong, doing most of his spring work over the nets.

Great Danger in Boulder,

With the Boulder game two weeks off, it would seem as if something should be done to help Maddock fill the weak spots in his team by either getting the students out to practice or else try to get students interested in the school who would make good material. If this is done at once Maddock will surely whip Boulder, because he knows more football, but if it is not done his chances are none too bright. The public would like to see Utah win, it wants Utah to win, and if every one connected with athletics at the university would get out and work for the team's interest there is little doubt it will win.

BILL REID CHANGES THINGS

PEDIGREE NO LONGER NECES SARY TO GET PLACE ON TEAM.

And Mr. Townsend gives assurance that this innovation has been wrought by Bill Reid, Harvard's chief coach, who hails from Belmont, Cal.

If will not be necessary to have the blue blood of aristocratic old New England families trickling in one's veins to make the squad or even the eleven this year.

Reid has sent forth the ceminand that his team will be one of brains and ability, players who are equal to emergencies, rather than a roster of names that reads like a New England blue book.

And as Reid has supreme control of football at Harvard, his wish in the matter of players is law.

In former years post students had a chance to gain knowledge at Harvard, but they had absolutely no show to make the football squad. This sacred precinct was reserved for youths whose families had stood high in dear old New England for years. It was considered a sucrilege for a working student to try to get within the inner gates. The football team was not for them. The result of this exclusiveness was that Harvard, for a college of its pretensions, made a poor showing.

It was decided that Bill Reid, Harvard's most successful coach, must be secured at any price. Reid was notified and accepted the place at a large salary and on condition that he was to have full control of the football team, without interference. Bill was granted his wish, and Harvard now has a coach that gives to the student body the hope that the crimson may again fly to the fore in some notable football contests.

Reid now has full control of the crimson squad, and is whipping the men into line. He is pursuing his own ideas about training and hopes to develop a good team.

training and hopes to develop team.

Reid is a stern disciplinarian. He piays no favorites. He is as absolute as the czar of Russia in the matter of training methods. He does not recognize players. No star can get away with any trick on Reid. Nor can they loaf, simply because they happen to be brilliant. Reid will have none of this. He makes all hustle and work alike.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Theodore Planz, wife of a merchant tailor, while riding in an automobile today, was killed. Mrs. Planz was guiding the machine, and while speeding aiong Van Ness avenue made a quick turn to avoid running down a pedestrian. The automobile was upset and the party thrown out. Mrs. Planz met death almost instantly, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Planz, was badly hurt. Theodore Planz, the husband of the woman who was killed, and his two nieces escaped injury.

Park City, Oct. 22.- The political fight is ow on in earnest in Park City, and from on until the end of the campaign the battle will be fought out in good shape. L. B. Wight was chosen to act as city chairman, and he, in conjunction with the ward committees, will form the campaign committee of the party.

Action was also taken by this convention disapproving the use of teams at this election. The Democratic convention adopted the same resolution, and the result will be spared the candidates this year.

Farmers are busy digging and loading sugar beets for the Ogden factory. The beets this year are not up to the standard in quality or yield, many fields having been so badly affected by blight that the roots are not worth digging for market. The city bakers have reduced the size of their loaves, asserting that it is impossible to give the same weight as formerly. There are some stocks of wheat in the hands of large farmers here, but not sufficient to bring down the price, which is steadily rising. The price of corn is also rising, the advance being over 50 per cent as compared with the prices of August. This causes hardship among the poor.
